Student Loan Borrower Information

Federal Direct Student Loans

Subsidized Loans:

- Need-based as determined by FAFSA.
- Interest does not accrue while enrolled at least half-time or during 6-month grace period after stopping or graduating.

Unsubsidized Loans:

- Eligibility as determined by FAFSA.
- Loan is not Need-based.
- Interest starts accruing during enrollment and continues after stopping or graduating.
- Students are awarded a ^U "pending" Subsidized Loan offer for half of their base annual limit for the Fall semester and half for the Spring semester. This will be either sub or unsub, depending on financial eligibility.
- Department of Education annual Subsidized student loan limit:
 - Freshman = $3500
 - Sophomore = $4500
- DTC semester award = $1750 per semester (Freshman) or 52250 per semester (Sophomore)
- Students may also request their annual limit for the additional Unsubsidized student loan in FA Self-Service by doing a new loan request or by completing the Student Loan Request Form. o Department of Education Annual Unsubsidized student loan limit:
 - Freshman = $2000
 - Sophomore = $2000
- DTC Award = 1000 per semester
- First-time student loan borrowers have a 30-day delay on their first disbursement. These disbursements will process 30 days after the first day of class. Grants and scholarships are not affected by the 30-day delay and will disburse as regularly scheduled for the semester.

Required steps to complete the Federal Direct Loan process:

Step 1: Complete the FAFSA and submit any additional documentation requested by the FA office.

Step 2: Accept their pending student loans offer in DTC's Self-Service of by using the paper Request Form.

Step 3: Complete a Master Promissory Note at <https://studentloans.gov/>.

Step 4: Complete Loan Entrance Counseling at <https://studentloans.gov/>.

Additional Loan Options

Parent Plus Loan

- Credit based loans in the parent's name if approved.
- Parent can borrow amounts up to the Cost of Attendance (minus all other sources of financial aid).
- Parent must apply at <https://studentloans.gov/>.
- DTC will receive the Parent Plus Loan application status within 3-5 days for processing.
- If the loan is denied, the student becomes eligible for additional unsubsidized loan eligibility.
- Addition amount = $2000/Fall and $2000/Spring
- Maximum additional amount = $4000/year.

Alternative/Private Loans

- Credit based loans in the student or parent's name (depending on the Lender).
- Most require a co-signer.
- Administered and processed by private lending institutions.
- Interest rates and repayment terms will be different for each Lender.
- A good practice is to always exhaust federal loans before seeking alternative loans.
- Student/Parent can borrow up to the Cost of Attendance (minus other sources of financial aid).
- Students/Parents are free to choose any Lender for the Alternate or Private loan.
- DTC does not endorse the use any specific Alternate or Private Lender.
- Once they choose their lender they will complete the lender's online loan application. If the loan application is approved, the lender will notify TTC to complete processing.
