

OFFICE OF STUDENT FINANCIAL AID
STUDENT CONSENT FORM

According to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) students must give school consent to disclose his or her educational records. The consent must be signed and dated. This consent acknowledges your rights and privacy. This form gives the Office of Student Financial Aid at Denmark Technical College permission to discuss your financial aid with those specific individuals whom you identify by listing them below. Your financial aid will not be discussed with anyone outside of the school officials who have legitimate educational interest, and those with whom consent is not required.

Please print the name(s) of the individuals that you give permission to inquire about your financial aid.
